HISTORICAL LOOP: 1.3 MILES

For the casual jogger, this 1.3 mile loop is the perfect way to see historic Charleston. You will pass many well known landmarks:

1. CONFEDERATE MUSEUM: Operated by the Daughters of the Confederacy and open to the public.
2. CIRCULAR CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH: Known as “White Meeting House,” for which Meeting Street was named.
3. 134 MEETING STREET: Site of the Institute Hall where the Ordinance of Secession was signed.
4. GIBBES MUSEUM OF ART: Houses many valuable paintings and is open to the public.
5. CITY HALL: Erected in 1801 as a branch of the First Bank of the United States. Purchased by the city in 1818. It houses portraits and busts of many prominent people in history including Trumbull’s famous portrait of General Washington.
6. COUNTY COURT HOUSES: Began as State House in 1752, burned in 1788 and was rebuilt on old walls.
7. U.S. POST OFFICE AND FEDERAL COURT: Site of the City Guard House which was destroyed in an earthquake in 1886.
8. SAINT MICHAEL’S EPISCOPAL CHURCH: Its bells have crossed the Atlantic Ocean five times. George Washington and the Marquis de Lafayette both worshiped here when visiting the city.
9. HEYWARD-WASHINGTON HOUSE: Home of Thomas Heyward, signer of the Declaration of Independence. George Washington stayed here while in Charleston.
10. OLD EXCHANGE BUILDING: An independent government was set up here in 1776 by the Provincial Congress. The Provost Dungeon is located in the basement and is open to the public.
11. U.S. CUSTOM HOUSE: Started in 1849 and completed in 1879. It is still operating today.
12. CITY MARKET: Established 1788–1804, it houses shops and boutiques, as well as an open air market.

BATTERY RUN: 4.6 MILES

For the more ambitious jogger, try the Battery Run. This 4.6 mile run takes you through the same course as the Historical Loop, adding a bit more challenge and scenery. You will run along Charleston’s breathtaking Battery where, on a clear day, you can see Fort Sumter which received the first shot of the Civil War on April 12, 1861.

Next onto Colonial Lake, a favorite spot among local runners, and it is easy to see why, with its sense of serenity and beauty. Now down Charleston’s famous Tradd Street, named after the city’s first born child, and finally to the Historical Loop completing the Battery Run.
